At a Legal meeting of the Inhabitants of the town of Hull begun & held at the Schoolhouse in said town on Wednesday the 11th day of May A.D. 1831 at one o'clock in the afternoon for the purpose of giving in their votes for or against the following article of amendment to the Constitution of said Commonwealth Viz: "The political year shall begin on the first Wednesday of January, instead of the last Wednesday of May, and the General Court shall assemble every year, on the said first Wednesday of January, and shall proceed at that Session to make all the elections, and do all the other acts which are by the Constitution required to be made and done at the Session which has heretofore commenced on the last Wednesday of May — And the General Court shall be dissolved on the day next preceding the first Wednesday of January without any proclamation or other act of the Governor.

But nothing herein contained shall prevent the General Court from assembling at such times as they shall judge necessary, or when called together by the Governor.

The Governor, Lieutenant Governor & Counsellors, shall also hold their respective offices for one year next following the first Wednesday January, and until others are chosen, and qualified in their stead — The meeting for the choice of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Senators, & Representatives, shall be held on the second Monday of November in every year; but meetings may be adjourned if necessary, for the choice of Representatives, to the next day, and again to the next succeeding day, but no further. But in case a second meeting shall be necessary for the choice of Representatives, such meetings shall be held on the fourth Monday of the same month of November. —

All the other provisions of the Constitution, respecting the elections and proceedings of the members of the General Court or of any other officers or persons whatever, that have reference to the last Wednesday of May, as the commencement of the political year, shall be so far altered as to have like reference to the first Wednesday of January — This article shall go into operation on the first day of October next following the day when the same shall be duly ratified and adopted as an amendment of the Constitution; - and the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Councilors, Senators, Representatives, and all other State officers, who are annually chosen and who shall be chosen for the current year when the same shall go into operation, shall hold their respective offices until the first Wednesday of January then next following, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead and no longer. - And the first election of the Governor & Lieutenant Governor, Senators, & Representatives to be had in virtue of this article, shall be had conformable thereto in the month of November following the day on which the same shall be in force, and go into operation, pursuant to the foregoing provision

All the provisions of the existing Constitution in con- sistent with the provisions herein contained, are hereby wholly annulled - The votes given in were sorted, counted & declaration thereof made and were as follows vizⁿ In favour of the Amendment six votes

Placed at p. 23 April 1831 Then Samuel Loring
